EVENTS DOERS vs. EVENTS PLANNERS

EVENTS DOERS answer these questions for nothing:

- Who gets the flowers?
- Who coordinates the luncheon?
- What will the theme be?
- How many invitations should be sent?
- What can we do besides mugs with our name on them?
- Should we charge for the bar?
- What profit will the charity see as a bottom line?
- Can you get a cake in the shape of our building?
- Who plans the ground transportation for our guests?
- Can you just rent the trees we need?
- Will this menu fit our budget and satisfy our client?
- Can you hire the models we need for this trade show?
- Can we get everyone to dress in costumes?
- We need a specific type of facility – can you find one?
- How do you serve food in a parking lot?
- What type of musicians will work in this space?
- Can tents fall down?
- Are there other questions we should ask?

At MARILYNN TUNKEY's we have been coordinating events successfully for ten years. We consider ourselves EVENTS DOERS and we not only answer the questions for FREE, we solve the problems for FREE, because we want to DO the event well. Sometimes our clients don't know what questions to ask and we feel it is our duty to provide them with all of the options available. That is the kind of extra service our accounts deserve and get.

DO give us a call ... we want to DO your event.
